Accessibility Best Practices

When creating any online marketing creative, always keep accessibility in the forefront of the creative.

Accessibility is ensuring that people with disabilities can access your communications and that there are no barriers in place that prevent this. Making communication accessible means providing a clear story through imagery and copy that is easy to understand....

Design:

1. Create consistent designs for each formats:

Refrain from scaling creative to fit different formats, make sure to keep a good balance between logo, product and headlines.

2. Make sure your branded logo and product are prominent:

You want to keep the customer feeling secure with memorable iconography along with a quick product glance.

3. Keep your design simple:

Don't overdo it, customers need to recognize your brand and understand your message in a very short timeframe.

4. Choose your fonts carefully:

Keep your fonts simple and readable.

5. Use relevant and strong imagery:

If you choose to include imagery, make sure it is relevant and ties directly to your brand.

6. Logo Placement:

We encourage the use of both product imagery and the brand logo on desktop versions. For mobile versions, a large product image will cover both the logo and product while saving space.

Copy:

1. Screen Readers:

If an individual has a vision impairment, they may rely on screen readers to help them navigate a site. Keep in mind that screen readers read from left to right, including all alt tags. For best practice, we recommend the banners be designed in the following order: Image with alt tag, Headline, Sub-headline, legal disclaimer then CTA.

2. Headlines:

Headlines should be brief, clear and informative. Particularly for users who can't visually scan the page and rely on screen readers. Also, the shorter the headline the larger the text size can be, making it easier to read as well as catch the attention of the customer.

3. Use fun and unique ad copy:

Think about your audience, and what's going to resonate with them as well as your product.

4. Tailor your message with a value prop:

Make sure to include what is setting you apart from the competition.

5. Instill urgency with a promotion:

The role of promotion in the marketing mix is critical for brands who want to ensure the right consumers are reached and objectives are met.

6. CTA should be enticing:

Shop now, Save now and Shop deals are great examples of enticing CTA copy, however, if able, including your product or brand name will help give visitors a clear direction to the URL destination.

Accessibility Best Practices

Content must pass Level AA Compliance

Level AA Compliance

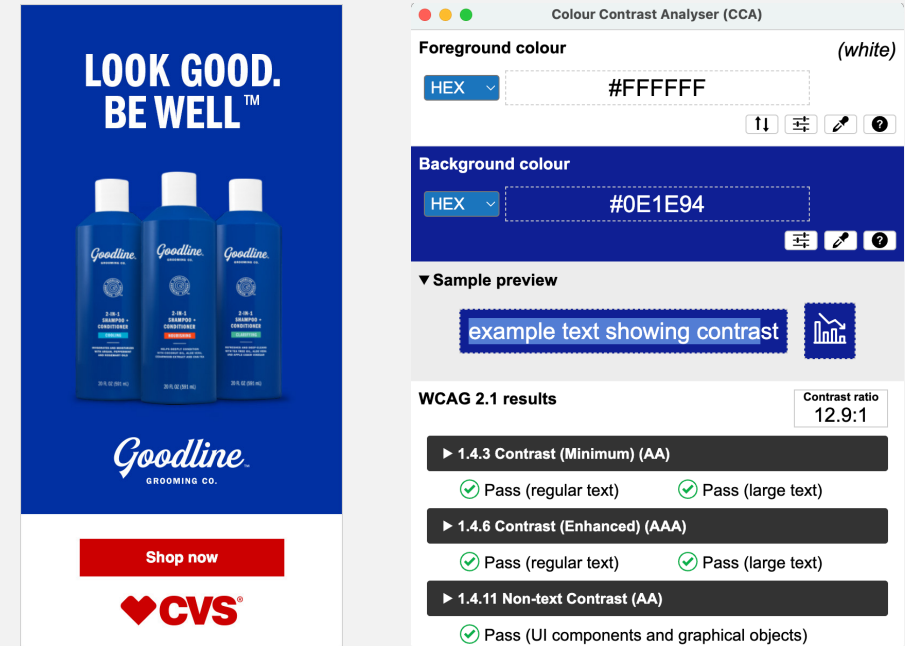

Level AA requirements refine website's accessibility standards even further. It's an advanced accessibility standard qualification. The requirements include:

- Video and audio content must have text captions
- Web content should keep the color contrast ratio at a level for visually impaired users
- Underlined text should lead to a link
- Users should be able to resize text to 200% without changing the form
- Web content should not use images where text has the same effect
- Redundant links should be removed
- Language should be identifiable in code even with language changes
- Users must receive suggestions on how to solve input errors
- The contrast ratio for page backgrounds and text should be at least 4.5 to 1

Please download and use this tool to confirm WCAG 2.1 AA compliance – TPGI.com

WCAG Color Contrast

The Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) define the different levels of contrast ratios depending on the level of success criteria. Below is an example of the color contrast tool used to verify selected colors fall within AA compliance.

WCAG 2.0 level AA requires a contrast ratio of at least 4.5:1 for normal text and 3:1 for large text.

Mobile Ad Best Practices:

Mobile banner ads need to make a very big impression on a small screen, and they need to do it at-a-glance. Here's a few basic pointers to help:

Design:

- Streamline your visual message by including product images with logos.
- Select images that work with all the onsite formats.

Copy:

- Keep copy short and to the point.
- Make sure your headlines are large enough to read.
- The shorter the copy, the larger the text can be.
- Try to avoid body copy and stick to headlines.

Mezzanine Video

File format: MP4

Resolution: 1920x1080

Length: 15 second max recommended

Bitrate range: 15,000-30,000
